Herbert Hoover Does Not Favor Russian Recognition

RUMORS EXPLODED BY HIS STATEMENTS

Favor of United States

Commerce

BY WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

Washington, Oct. 26.—The administration of Herbert Hoover, if he is elected president, will continue the Coolidge administration's policy of refusing recognition to the Soviet republic of Russia, until it has acknowledged debts of the old Czarist government, it was learned today.

The action of the General Electric company in negotiating a $22,000,000 contract with the Soviets has led to reports that "big business" will seek the resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Russia in the near future. Friends of the Republican nominee, however, declared he stood opposed to recognition until Russia established a government, which would enable her people to maintain commerce with the rest of the world, and until she has acknowledged all outstanding national obligations.

Rumors
There have been rumors in Washington, since Senator William E. Borah (R.) of Idaho, took the stump for Hoover, that the Republican nominee might favor recognition of Russia.

These rumors sprang from the fact Borah has been the chief proponent of Russian recognition and has been a close adviser of Hoover in the presidential campaign. The nominee's friends, however, declared Hoover did not share Borah's views toward Russia.

As early as 1922, Hoover stated his views in no uncertain terms and then he declared against recognition. "It seems to be believed by some people that if we would go one step further in relations and establish in Washington the purely political relationship by a Soviet ambassador," Hoover said, "then goods would begin to flow—but goods do not move in an economic vacuum. More political officials will not solve this issue; it requires economic relationships and this requires the restoration of the dynamic forces of productivity and the establishment of security for investment. The foundation of these things must be laid in Russia; it cannot arise in the United States."

Chaos Possible

"This principle is that unless foreign merchants and investors may enjoy property and security of contract under the terms of the institution by which they acquired them, or alternatively, receive compensation for the loss of them, then the whole fabric of international trade and commerce will disappear and the world will go up in chaos. It is impossible to conceive commerce between nations that is not founded upon the right of property and on only course is to decline political relationships until these things are maintained."

The Republican nominee, it was added, has a tremendous store of information about Russia and Russian conditions, gathered during his relief administration days. In all, Hoover handled the expenditure of about $75,000,000 of relief money in Russia after the close of the war. He stated at the time that the move was purely humanitarian and should not be construed as inviting overtures for recognition.

At Headquarters

Hoover spent today his headquarters, working upon the speech he will deliver in St. Louis Friday night, Nov. 2, and in conferring with party leaders. Until he departs for the West Coast, to cast his vote at his California home, Hoover's principal concern will be to keep the Republican organization functioning at top speed. If he can do so, he firmly believes he will be elected president on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

SMITH PLEASED WITH CONDITIONS

Nominee Certain Victory
Will Come to Party
On Election Day

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES

New York, Oct. 26.—The first phase of Gov. Al Smith's "battle for the Atlantic seaboard" ended today with the Democratic nominee more confident than ever of the triumph of his cause.

The governor came into his native New York today for a brief rest before venturing out again on the conquest of the seaboard states that mean so much to his candidacy. Tomorrow night he speaks in Philadelphia. The speech is to be preceded by a reception and parade in that Republican city which promises to set a record for Philadelphia.

Democratic candidates for the presidency don't usually speak in Pennsylvania. They consider it a waste of time but he believes he will carry the state ten days hence, notwithstanding that no Democrat has ever carried it for the presidency.

Well Satisfied
Governor Smith reached New York at midnight in a satisfied frame of mind.

He was glowing from the warmth of the reception accorded him all of yesterday through Rhode Island and Connecticut. Certainly no Democrat, and few, if any, Republican candidates for the presidency, ever received the acclaim that was given Governor Smith in New England yesterday.

Grade Crossing Is Again Considered

Director May Rule Y. - O. Dirigible Chieftain

COMPANY WITHOUT FUNDS IS CLAIM

Highway Danger Spot

Of Route

Judgment as to the necessity of the Youngstown & Ohio River Railroad company participating in the elimination of the street car and Pennsylvania railroad crossing on the Salem-Lakewood rd. one-half mile southwest of Salem, was to be referred to H. J. Kirk, director of miles southwest of Salem, was to be referred to H. J. Kirk, director of highways in Columbus today.

This action followed the filing of a brief by the Y. & O. late Thursday which stated that the company is unable to participate in the project according to J. G. Kane, in charge of state grade separation projects.

Kirk's decision will be made following a complete investigation of the project and if possible, will allow the Y. & O. additional time before other steps are taken in the matter, Kane stated.

Action on the separation has been pending since last month, when a delegation of Salem and Columbiana county men attended the hearing on the crossing elimination in Columbus and secured the state department's tentative approval of the issue. A delay was caused in the final approval due to representatives of the Y. & O. filing action against the project by stating that the company was unable to finance its share of the separation.

According to preliminary rulings made at the hearing the traction company was given until Oct. 21 to file the brief, but additional time was given by the highways department.

STRATON RAPS GOV. AL SMITH

W. C. T. U. Hears Pastor
Flay Democrat In Address

Columbus, Oct. 26.—With selection of a meeting place for 1929 slated as the chief item of the day, the 50-50 annual convention Ohio W. C. T. U. went into closing sessions here today.

Delegates and visitors to the convention were still discussing the slashing attack on Gov. Alfred E. Smith made by Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, New York, last night in which Dr. Straton directed a withering fire of ridicule and satire on the Democratic presidential nominee, characterizing Smith as "the creature and servant of Tammany Hall," a man who has violated his oath of office and is a traitor to the constitution of his country.

"Although scientists have failed in their efforts to find the so-called 'missing link' it has remained for me, a fundamentalist, to bring this link to public notice," Dr. Straton declared. "It is the miserable monstrosity, the contemptible hybrid produced by a cross-breeding of the Tammany tiger and the Democratic donkey, having a 'wet' head and a 'dry' tail."

Mrs. W. N. Graham, Columbus, president of Franklin county W. C. T. U., was elected to the board of trustees yesterday, succeeding Mrs. Emma L. Bowman, Fremont.

A resolution pledging the vote of the state organization to Herbert Hoover was adopted by the convention.

Quiet Reigns On Alliance-Sebring Frontier After Week Of Whoopie And Hostilities, But Aftermath Remains

Tomato Bombardment On Invading Sebring Army Is Start

Sebring, Oct. 26.—Quiet prevailed along the Sebring-Alliance sector today following some heavy action in the last few days, involving much whoopie, six arrests and a football game.

The football game, cause of it all, was played between the High school teams of the two towns here yesterday, Alliance winning 14 to 12.

Sebring had been "pointing" for its traditional rival and with five successive victories as its record of the season, things looked rosy. The atmosphere has been tense all week. Several days ago 300 or 400 Sebring rooters paraded through

GRAF ZEPPELIN WILL NOT MAKE WESTERN TRIP

Weather Causes Flight To Be Cancelled By
Dr. Eckener

RETURN TO EUROPE IS SCHEDULED SOON

Navigator Makes Decision
After Reading Charts
Of Weather

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 26.—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, announced today that the proposed flight of the dirigible over the Middle West had been cancelled.

Unfavorable weather existed again today and, after studying the maps this morning, Dr. Eckener announced a few minutes after 10:30 that the inland trip was definitely off. He made the decision reluctantly as he had hoped to be able to give the people of the Middle West an opportunity to view the huge, silver-bodied air liner which recently made an historical flight from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to Lakehurst.

The desire to make the return flight to Germany as soon as possible—probably early next week—was an influencing factor in Dr. Eckener's decision.

A low pressure area over the Great Lakes region resulted in the inland trip being called off at the last minute last night after some of the 21 invited passengers and guests were aboard.

This morning the passengers were again ready but reports were that the weather was no better and shortly before Dr. Eckener announced that the Middle West flight was off some of passengers began making arrangements to return to their homes.

After informing newspaper men of cancellation of the trip, Dr. Eckener went to an office in the hangar to prepare an official statement.

Capt. Ernst Lehmann, second in command of the Graf Zeppelin, said Dr. Eckener earnestly hoped to make the inland trip to give the people an opportunity to see the airship, but felt they could no longer delay returning to Germany.

"We had planned to stay less than two weeks in this country and as elaborate preparations have been made in Berlin for our arrival, we feel it is our duty to return there without further undue delay," Capt. Lehmann added.

With the Graf Zeppelin's mid-western trip definitely cancelled, the return flight to Germany is likely to be started next Wednesday. It will take at least three days to get the ship ready for the eastward flight, Capt. Lehmann explained.

Youngstown Man to Face Non-Support Charges In Courts

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 26.—An extradition warrant under which Abby Stauffer, of Buffalo, will be taken back to Youngstown, O., to answer a charge of neglecting his two minor children today was issued at Governor Smith's office. Stauffer was arrested in Buffalo on Sunday on a fugitive warrant.

Stauffer, who was divorced in Youngstown three years ago by his wife, Mrs. Leona Stauffer, has remarried. The Ohio courts directed him to pay his former wife $85 a month for the support of their two children.

See Election Fraud

Cleveland, Oct. 26.—The Cuyahoga county board of elections today requested police to investigate the registration of more than 200 people who gave addresses of five small downtown hotels. Clerk A. J. Hirstus of the election board, said he feared that attempts to vote "floaters" were being made in downtown wards.

Court Martial Hovering Over Alliance Squad Of Night Raiders

bring rooters swarmed on field, stopped the game, and were persuaded with some difficulty by officials to return to the stands.

Again Sebring missed goal. Then, with less than five minutes to play, The blow fell. A long forward pass put Alliance in scoring position and windmill crashed over for his second touchdown. Keefe again kicked goal and a minute later the game was over.

Police of both towns are glad it is over. "Both towns were just crazy," somebody remarked "and some of our business men were just as bad as the High school kids."

Reunited in Immigration Tangle

Due to a tangle in immigration law, Martine Ginal, his wife and their son, Zolton, were separated for five months. Mrs. Ginal is an American citizen and, with her son, was readily admitted to the United States, but her husband was compelled to wait nearly half a year in Canada until measure passed by Congress permitting alien husbands of American wives to enter without quota restriction became effective.

"Flapper" Robs Aged Farmer, Sheriff Makes Discovery

Mansfield, Oct. 26.—Richland county's strangest robbery was to be aired in municipal court this afternoon according to Sheriff Ralph A. Schad, who reports that Edward Wolf, 19, Shiloh has confessed he dressed as a flapper and stole $41 from John Beck, an aged farmer of near Shiloh, after entering Beck's home. Wolf is technically charged with grand larceny.

Shiloh, the little town north of Mansfield, is agog with the yarn, which is several days old because Beck didn't reveal the robbery for some time.

Youngstown Man to Face Non-Support Charges In Courts

According to Sheriff Schad's story of the strange case, a beautiful "flapper" appeared on the streets of Shiloh some days ago. Old and young men played swains but only Beck gained favor. The farmer's country home became the scene of the next chapter. Cleverly hiding his sex identity, Wolf outsmarted the old farmer and then came the dawn when Beck discovered the flapper and a wallet from Beck's trousers were both missing, Schad was told.

Pythian Sisters To Convene In Salem

The huge red, white and blue monoplanes landed at the Los Angeles municipal airport yesterday after flying from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Harry Tucker, Santa Monica sportsman and owner of the ship, was a passenger.

The two hopped off at Roosevelt field, New York, at 4:17 p. m., Wednesday to break the coast to coast record established by the army flyers John Macready and Oakley Kelly. They made the flight in 26 hours and 50 minutes.

Capt. Collier established a new east to west record, but failed to better its time on the west to east flight, when Art Goebel and Harry Tucker made the trip in the same Lockheed plane in 18 hours and 51 minutes.

The plane carried a fuel supply of 525 gallons of gasoline and 25 gallons of oil, when it took off. The ship had gas enough for another hour and a half's flying when it landed.

Republicans Rejoice Over Curtis Speech

Akron, Oct. 26.—Republican leaders here were happy today over the results of a speech by Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas, G. O. P. vice-presidential nominee, delivered here last night.

Curtis, addressing an enthusiastic audience of more than 4,000, spoke on the tariff and renewed his attacks on Gov. Al Smith.

He assailed Smith's stand on the tariff and pointed out several instances of what he termed inconsistencies on the part of the Democratic nominee.

Police of both towns are glad it is over. "Both towns were just crazy," somebody remarked "and some of our business men were just as bad as the High school kids."

QUALIFICATION OF HOOVER IS THEME OF TALK

Cincinnati Woman Makes
Plea For Residents
To Cast Ballot

G. O. P. VOTERS MUST SHOW BIG INCREASE

Democrats Will Poll 25
Per Cent Higher Vote
She Claims

"At no time since I have been in politics have we had a candidate more qualified for the presidency than is Herbert Hoover. His records of achievement in private and public life make him worthy of any position to which he might aspire."

Congressman James T. Begg, of Sandusky, speaking before a gathering of Salem and county Republicans at the High school auditorium Thursday night, in this manner lauded Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential nominee.

Accomplishments

"Hoover's accomplishments while secretary of commerce have been a powerful contribution to the prosperity of our country in the past eight years. The Republican party can point to achievements in development and expansion of our business with pride. Mr. Hoover has played a great part in these developments," Begg stated.

Begg scored the Democratic party for continued reticence concerning several vital national political measures.

"It is interesting to note Gov. Al Smith's 'hedging' on the great economic problems of the tariff. On all international problems, the Democrats have never come out openly. I have frequently challenged some Democrat to state in frank language just what the foreign policy of their party is. Silence has been their only answer."

Prohibition

The Democratic stand on prohibition; the attitude taken by Democrats on the question of national prosperity, the entire platform of the Democratic party was scored by Begg.

"Herbert Hoover has done more to solve American economic problems than any man in our history. The prosperous eight years—years of Republican administration—demand the continuance of our party in Ohio and the entire United States. The only prosperous years under Democratic regime came through false prosperity during war periods," he added.

Mrs. A. B. Johnson, of Cincinnati, prominent in women's politics throughout Ohio, also spoke and issued an appeal to the men of the Republican party to permit women to work with them in politics.

"The slacker during peace-time is the non-voter. Women want to work side by side with men; they want to participate in all governmental affairs, to have a say in the affairs that make our country the greatest in the world. If we are given that opportunity, there will be no slackers."

Warns Party

Mrs. Johnson issued the warning to Republicans that unless there is an increase of 25 per cent in voting of Republicans, Ohio will this year have a Democratic regime, as she predicted a 25 per cent increase in the vote of the opposing party.

"Ohio needs a Republican governor, house, and senate, in order to eliminate the confusion of the last six years, when we had a Democratic governor and Republican house and senate. These have never worked well together," she stated.

A spasmodic downpour of rain failed to prevent 500 persons from attending the rally.

Mrs. Johnson and Begg were honored at a reception dinner at the Elks home, and escorted to the High school by the Quaker City band.

E. M. Peters, president of the Salem Republican club was chairman of the program. Republican candidates for county offices were introduced. The Hoover quartet of Youngstown sang several selections.

Salem Constable To Face Assault Charge

Constable Earl Ritchie, Salem, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault with intent to kill before Mayor Phil Hiddleston today and was bound over to grand jury on $2,000 bond.

Ritchie was arrested Thursday afternoon on the charge preferred by his wife, Mrs. Edith Ritchie, in an affidavit, according to the police report. Mrs. Ritchie alleges that her husband struck and beat her, bruising her severely.

IMMIGRATION

So intense has been the general interest in the presidential race—and there doesn't appear to be any indication that it will abate in the slightest degree between the present and the date of election—that many may not have given, and may continue to neglect to give, the degree of consideration they should to the threat to liberalize the immigration law.

It is neither the purpose nor the desire of this newspaper to quarrel with any voter over his choice for the presidency, whether that choice be Mr. Smith or Mr. Hoover. From what we know of the two men, from what we have gleaned from the public life of each and from their utterances during the campaign, we believe Mr. Hoover to be the better equipped for the presidency, but this does not blind us to the fact that there are millions of voters who favor Mr. Smith, which is their unquestioned right. Well and good.

But no matter which of these gentlemen may be chosen to enter the White House, this matter of changing the immigration law will not be determined by the victor in the race for the presidency. Presidents do not make laws. They may suggest legislation; they may champion measures, but the great majority of laws by congress do not come into existence through executive initiative.

Hence it is that we would have the voter, regardless of his presidential preference, give more attention to a very important issue which has received but little attention. We have seen oceans of matter in print on the subject of prohibition, power development, farm relief, and many other matters having a rightful place in the campaign which are not subject for executive determination, and oceans in print about a lot of matters which should not have been injected into it, but up to date we have come upon little in print on the subject of immigration.

About twenty-five years ago, immigration began to grow by leaps and bounds. Less than 500,000 in 1901, it mounted to 857,946 in 1903, went up to 1,025,490 in 1925 and 1,285,399 in 1927. It dropped to 1,041,570 in 1910, but two years later was up to 1,218,480. The war operated as a bar during the continuation of the struggle, with the result that immigration dropped to 110,618 in 1918. The year before this, the 1917 immigration law was enacted, by the terms of which each foreign country, with a few exceptions, was given a quota equal to three per cent of the number of persons born in that country who were residents of continental United States as shown by the census of 1910. Immigration at once began to increase, with the result that in 1924 it reached a total of 705,896.

It was in the last named year that congress enacted the new law, which changed the law of 1917 in two important respects.

First—Under the new law the undesirable or ineligible aliens are largely weeded out before they start instead of after the get here.

The law relieves the great body of immigrants of detention at Ellis island and removes many causes for delays and misfortunes after they reach American ports. The act was intended also to prevent separation of families, and to reduce the number of deportations for causes which can be determined on the other side.

The American consuls are directed to examine the information given on questionnaires and eliminate applicants who are feebleminded and whose prison records make them undesirable.

The principal United States consular officer in each foreign country is designated as quota-control officer, and it is his duty to see that the quota is not exceeded. The consular service is under the department of state.

Second—The annual quota from each country, with a few exceptions, is lowered to two per cent of the number of persons born in that country, with a few exceptions, is lowered to two per cent of the number of persons born in that country who were residents of continental United States as shown by the 1890 census.

Under the provisions of the law, each country is given a minimum of 100, and preference is given to immigrants who are unmarried children under twenty-one years of age, the father, the mother, the husband or the wife of a citizen of the United States who is twenty-one years of age or over. The year following, 1925, immigration dropped to 294,314, and last year it was 335,175.

The Democratic party is committed to quotas based on a more recent census than that on which the present law is based and a liberalization of the present quotas. The Republican party favors the retention of the existing law, which, by the way, is more favorable to northern Europe than to southern, for the reason that its quotas are based on a census which portrayed the blood strains of the country before the mighty flood of immigration swept in and continued to sweep until it became manifest that it had to be checked; that if it were not, America could not be preserved for Americans.

It is a well-recognized fact that many voters favoring the head of a ticket vote that ticket all the way down. Following that policy may cause many voters to vote—indirectly, of course—for a freer immigration policy to which they are opposed. It is possible, in the absence of light on the subject, that many who are perfectly satisfied with our immigration law and opposed to the letting-down of the immigration bars—voters who believe in America for Americans—may vote for members of the federal senate and house who are committed to a change of the law.

It is the privilege of every voter to decide for whom he, or she, will vote, but he or she, as the case may be, should not vote blindly. For this reason each and every voter casting a ballot at the coming election should so mark it as to make the voter's preferences and wishes, whatever they may be.

What Others Say

It would be difficult to say which of Gov. Smith's speeches has done him the most harm. Perhaps that in Montana was his weakest. The Louisville effort might safely be ranked as his greatest political blunder. For unconscious damage to his own cause, the speech in Se-dalia seems likely to beat them all.

After paying lip service to economy, Gov. Smith proceeded at great length to make fun of petty savings. He evidently fancied his sense of humor with respect to these budget items. He went on endlessly holding up to ridicule the efforts of the bureau of the budget to persuade bureaucratic officials to save the tax payer's money.

Even the governor's friendliest correspondents agreed that his Missouri audience failed to laugh with the governor at these points. In fact the whole attack on Calvin Coolidge economy fell flat. It could hardly do otherwise before any American audience anywhere.

What was really significant was the governor's brazen hostility to economy. He showed not the slightest realization of the truth that large savings can come only through petty economies. His whole utterance was an encouragement to office holders to spend the taxpayers' money lavishly.

The figures of appropriations in the governor's terms at Albany will not lie. They are an appalling record of spending and extravagance. Now out of his own mouth the governor reveals the mental attitude behind this easy spending of public money. It is one all too familiar to citizens ruled by Tammany. Without it a corrupt political machine can not be maintained over a long period of years.

The governor committed an appalling act of self-revelation when he scoffed at small savings and tried to persuade the farmers of Sedalia to join in his uproarious laughter at Calvin Coolidge economy.—New York Herald Tribune.

CAN A MAN POSSIBLY LIVE FOR 250 YEARS?

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D., United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

Not long ago I read a ridiculous tale. It was to the effect that a citizen of North China, Mr. Li Ching-Yun, celebrated his 250th birthday!

I suppose we need no further evidence.

Mr. Li, who has a significant name, admits his great age. Unlike many persons who seek to hide the number of years, this gentleman boasts of his.

Nearly 200 surviving descendants gathered to do honor to the old gentleman. Many of his family died a couple of hundred years ago, but there are plenty left.

Of course candor compels me to state that I am decidedly skeptical, but a hundred years, more or less, count little in this story. It is remarkable enough, even though Ching-Yun is but 150.

But what the venerable man says about living is more interesting to me than the tale of the centuries. He was asked for advice about how to live long. Here is his remarkable reply:

"Keep a quiet heart.
"Sit like a tortoise.
"Walk sprightly like a pigeon.
"Sleep like a dog."

This is not a bad program. Let us study it for a moment.

Have you ever thought about it, that old men when asked for advice about how to live never recommend tonics, pills, powders or other medicines? All their suggestions relate to a manner of living which has for its object the prevention of disease. Suggestions are made which relate wholly to the care of the body by natural methods. They never trust to drugs and other medication.

Keep a quiet heart," says Mr. Li. Fine.

To have this there must be temperance, temperate drinking and eating, temperance in the emotional life. Anger, excitement, overfatigue, or other exertion, every thing that sets the heart to pounding—all these are dangerous to men and women past middle life.

I am not sure just how a tortoise sits, but I assume it rests quietly on the lower shell, absolutely relaxed in every muscle. If we could give our bodies such perfect relaxation when we sit down there would be restoration of strength and energy.

You have seen the pigeon strut off with all the sprightliness of elastic muscles, and every evidence of abounding energy. That is the way we should do. Let us not drag our feet walking along as if we were actually 250 years of age. Let us be up and doing, walking "sprightly like a pigeon."

If we eat as we should and exercise when we should, getting into the warmth of the sunshine, then we too, would "sleep like a dog."

To live that way will add years to our lives.

You are a philosopher, Mr. Li, a philosopher such as your race has produced in such numbers. Whether your years are actually 250 or only a third of them, you have given a good formula, one well worth living. Thank you, venerable sage.

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, Oct. 27.

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE.

A strong position of Saturn this day, in time aspect with the moon, may be said to govern the state of affairs. This figure is said to bring rewards to merit, patience, perseverance and application, and favors the occupations of Saturn—agriculture, real estate, mining, machinery and kindred vocations. It favors also old persons and institutions. Rash and impetuous moves and speech should not jeopardize Saturn's benefits. Sentimental denouncements may be expected in personal matters, calling for sudden changes or travel.

Those whose birthday it is may look for rich rewards for patience, industry and steady purpose and effort, but may be unusual and unexpected developments in their personal affiliations. Keep firm grasp on tongue and temper. A child born on this day should have many stable and reliable traits, with industry and perseverance, but may also be quick tempered and impetuous. Its personal life may be eventful and sensational.

Work is its own best earthly need.—Jean Ingelow.

Stick to Your Last, First!

One day I watched a plumber fix a leaky bathtub slick and clean.

"There's nothing to these plumbers' tricks," The thought exploded in my brain.

"I'll do my own work like that And with the savings buy a hat."

Eventually it fell my lot To own a tub that leaked like sin.

The more I toiled the worse it got, Until at last my soul gave in.

I called a plumber in my shame, He quickly fixed it up again.

"Is always thus when humans try To do the things they don't know how— To fly a plane around the sky, When all they've ridden is a cow.

"Stick to your last," is always best, And let a tailor make your vest—A selector.

We don't know tailoring, Or jewelry or meats, But we do know PLUMBING! TRY US!

DRY RAIDER ON STAND IN TRIAL

Expert Says Bullet Hit Pavement Before Girl Was Wounded

Elyria, O., Oct. 26.—Louis Cicco, former Lorain dry raider, indicted on a charge of shooting to wound Miss Betty Heywood, 22, British subject of Elyria, again took the witness stand today and resumed the testimony which he hopes will bring his acquittal.

The black-haired defendant, born in Sicily, but now an American citizen, who in the brief span of a few months rose from the ranks of an ordinary officer on the Lorain police force to a nemesis of rum runners, told his story unflinchingly. Several times, when his answers became lengthy, his counsel, Attorney George Glitsch and Frank Staek, advised him, "You have already answered the question fully, Louie."

Sisters Present

Three of Cicco's sisters, in the rear of the courtroom and looked on anxiously. "Louie" has avowed they said, since the night of the shooting, Sept. 26. His brow is wrinkled.

Prosecutor Dow Baird opened a vigorous cross-examination this afternoon. The trial was moving more slowly and since there is no court tomorrow the case probably will not go to the jury until Monday.

One of the strongest defense points was presented yesterday afternoon when Arthur E. Hart, Cleveland ballistic expert, took the stand. He testified that the bullet which struck Miss Heywood at the back of her head ricocheted from another object. The defense is attempting to show that Cicco fired at the pavement, not directly at the automobile, and that here was his no malice or intent on his part.

To Be Called

Cicco is not the last witness to be called by the defense. Defense counsel today refused to say whether they would rest their case after cross-examination of Cicco by the prosecution.

When asked by his counsel when he was appointed to the Lorain police department, Cicco answered:

"April, Friday 13th. It was an unlucky day for me."

PEAK IN LOANS FAILS TO HALT RAISING PRICES

Preference Is Shown For

COMODITY MARTS REPORTED AS FIRM

Influx of Buying Fairly
Sweeps Wall Street
From Feet

New York, Oct. 26.—Disregarding entirely the new "peak in brokers' loans" as revealed in last night's reported 107,000,000 increase in speculative borrowings, the stock market forged ahead to a higher level of prices today as the influx of buying demand fairly swept Wall Street off its feet.

Responding to the record breaking earnings reports of the General Motors corporation, Bethlehem steel corporation, etc. released after the close of yesterday's market, investors swarmed into the big financial district ready to purchase their favorite stocks. The preference was again shown for the Oils and the Coppers, the latter benefiting by the overnight increase in the price of Export Copper to 16 cents a pound. Kennecott Copper jumped 6 points to 122 in the lead of the Red Metal share. Greene-Cannan, Anaconda, American Smelting and Chile sold higher. Marland was the favorite in the Independent Oils with a rise to a new high above 44 in heavy trading. Sinclair and Pan American were unable to gain. Jordan continued its spectacular uprush in the low-priced motor group, advancing to around 18 for a gain of 6 points on the movement. Radio, Western Union, Sears Roebuck and other high priced specialties were in their best form rising enthusiastically in a heavy turnover.

The call loan rate opened at 7 1/2 per cent a full point above yesterday's initial rate but fractionally below Thursday's close. Commodity markets were steady with narrow price changes in cotton, wheat, corn and foodstuffs. Metal markets were firm, with particular strength in Copper and Pig Iron.

through the Blackstone river valley of Rhode Island and the industrial cities of Connecticut, enormous crowds greeted him at every stop, and seemed to vie each other with the favor of their reception.

Hartford was a miniature Baten. The parade there was more of a riot than a parade, with thousands of people lining the streets, and the police line meant a great deal less than nothing. Members of the governor's party were mauled and pulled about so much that the train finally left Hartford without eight of them. It was necessary to back up three miles before the party could be collected again.

Norris Endorses
One of the things chiefly contributory to Governor Smith's confidence frame of mind, and his confidence concerning the verdict a week from Tuesday, is the endorsement he has received from Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska.

Governor Smith has been told by his advisers that his chances of winning Nebraska's eight electoral votes have been dependent upon Norris's endorsement. He has also been told that Norris' approval means his chances in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Wisconsin are greatly enhanced. The favorable news from the west has done much to increase his confidence as he is engaging in the battle for the east.

The final week of the campaign has been pretty well mapped out so far as Governor Smith himself is concerned. Tomorrow night he speaks in Philadelphia. He will stay in Philadelphia Saturday night and attend church Sunday morning, Baltimore Monday for a night speech. New York Tuesday, Newark, N. J., on Wednesday night, and close the campaign with speeches in Brooklyn and New York Friday and Saturday night respectively.

Rheumatism Among Afflictions That Vanished Quickly When The Marvelous Konjola Came

MRS. H. AHRENS

When Konjola comes illness vanishes and new health reigns. Konjola is a medicine of performances, not promises, and it is reasonable to believe that what this compound has done for others it will do for all who suffer. Those who are discouraged should read the statement by Mrs. H. Ahrens, 1104 Waldbridge Avenue, Toledo, Ohio. Filled with happiness over her health restored, Mrs. Ahrens said:

"I want all the world to know what Konjola did for me, a discouraged, disheartened victim of stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and rheumatism. I tried everything, and found only disappointment. At times my knees were so stiff I could not walk; indigestion caused intense gas and bloating pains; poisons stored up in my system undermined my general health, and I was at the very end of my string when Konjola was recommended. "It's wonderful to believe were the results. Three bottles of this astonishing remedy, and I was completely restored to health. I have no pains, no rheumatism, no indigestion, and my kidneys and other organs function perfectly." Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease drug stores and by all the leading druggists in every town throughout this entire section.

Lucca, Italy—Michele Della Mag-

giore, a Communist, convicted of assassinating two Fascists, was executed recently. Maggioire is the first person to be condemned to death in Italy since 1860 and his execution was in the form usually reserved for military offenders or wartime traitors. Bella Maggioire was tied to a chair. A platoon of 12 Fascist militiamen fired and killed him outright.

FRENCH CABINET FACING BATTLE ON PARIS PLAN

Paris, Oct. 26.—Minister of War Paul Painlevé will have a war on his hands next month, according to bellicose promises made by several deputies.

Most warlike is M. Pierre Taittinger, deputy for the first ward of Paris, who announced he would challenge M. Painlevé, as soon as the chamber reconvenes, on Plan Z, the general staff's designation for theoretical measures to be taken in event of a revolution.

Spring Plan "Z"
Plan Z was the surprise to be sprung on communists if they ever made good their threat and tried to capture Paris. Everyone, including the Communists, appear to be well-informed as to the defense plan following rivaling articles in the newspapers.

Under this plan Paris would be evacuated at the first signs of an uprising, the government and troops going to Versailles to prepare a counter-attack against the revolutionists.

Whatever strategical merit the project of abandoning Paris may possess M. Taittinger and others fail to perceive them. "Leave our museums, our churches, our lines of communications, our women and children to these hordes!" demands M. Taittinger. "Impossible! Defend Paris at any cost."

He intends to fire the opening shot in the chamber and that shot may be the opening of "The Battle of Paris." An arch-foe of Communism, M. Taittinger for once will find the eleven Red deputies of the chamber aiding him in the raid on Plan Z.

See New Plan
Vaillant-Couturier, swash-buckling editor who helped incite readers of "Humanité" to Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations a year ago, in regard to Plan Z says, "I told you so."

He believes the government is afraid that its troops would be won over immediately at the outbreak of a revolution and for that reason prefers to avoid direct contact. Consequently he finds Plan Z unfavorable to Red tactics. Regardless of how the promised chamber battle is terminated military authorities foresee a brand-new and absolutely secret plan of municipal defense that if ever brought into action will surprise both Conservatives and Communists.

Organic Rubbish Is Source of Manures

Manufacture of artificial manure from organic rubbish found about the yard and garden is perfectly possible. However, the use of the process may eventually be required to pay a royalty on every ton of manure so produced, according to Dr. F. E. Bear of the soils department of the Ohio State university. The process by which the rubbish is converted into manure has been patented by an English company, and the legality of the patent is now being tested in the American courts.

Leaves, grass cuttings, weeds, straw and such material lend themselves readily to the manufacture of manure which has all the valuable properties of the barnyard variety, and is far more agreeable to handle, says the soils expert. The material should be piled in some out of the way place where it can be moistened at intervals, and then given an occasional dressing of lime and sulfate of ammonia.

Bran muffins

This recipe makes the best you ever ate

2 tablespoons shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup sour milk, 1 cup Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, 1 cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder. Cream shortening and sugar together, add egg. Mix and sift flour, soda, salt, and baking powder. To creamed mixture add ALL-BRAN, then milk, alternately with sifted dry ingredients. Pour into greased muffin tins, and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) for 20 minutes. Yield: either 8 large or 12 medium size muffins. If sweet milk is used instead of sour, omit soda and use 3 teaspoons baking powder.

health when eaten as a cereal. Doctors recommend it. But be sure you get the genuine Kellogg's. It is 100% bran and furnishes "bulk" in generous quantities. Part-bran products, at best, can only be part-way effective. Just eat two table-spoons of ALL-BRAN daily (chronic cases of constipation, with every meal). Delicious with milk or cream, fruits or honey added.

Grocers everywhere sell Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Use it and you'll free yourself from constipation. Also from the use of habit-forming cathartics. For Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works as nature works. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Guaranteed!
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

WAIT until you see those muffins as they come from the oven. Wonderfully light and fluffy—never soggy. And when you break one open and let a lump of butter melt in that tender texture, get ready for a taste experience such as you never had before. No other muffin ever had such a rich, nut-like flavor.

The fine thing about eating these wonderful muffins is the health they bring you. For that cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN helps supply your eliminative system with bulk and fiber that prevents constipation. So many foods in our diet—meat, eggs, milk, sugar, fats—lack this necessary roughage.

But muffins are not the only food where you can get healthful and tasty results by adding ALL-BRAN. Put it in dressings. Sprinkle it in soups. Mix it in griddle cake batter.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is equally effective for

Escaped Prisoner Returned to Jail

Youngstown, O., Oct. 26.—Several weeks of freedom had ended for Clyde Van Tuyl, 43, formerly of Niles, and he was back in jail at Pontiac, Mich., today, the same jail from which he escaped about two months ago.

A "trusty" in the Pontiac jail, Van Tuyl was allowed many liberties and simply walked away, according to reports here. He was found working in a steel mill here Wednesday and returned to Pontiac yesterday.

Van Tuyl had no criminal record, according to information received here, and was charged with non-support. His wife also lives in Pontiac, according to police.

South And Far-West Out Of Limelight In Week's Grid Games

East And Big Ten To Furnish Thrills For Thousands In Fandom

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Oct. 26.—Intercollegiate football will be strangely quiescent tomorrow in the major sections, the Pacific coast and the south and that, of course, isn't a nice way to get as the man was run over by a steam roller will testify. They say he became terribly quiescent almost immediately.

Anyhow, if the day is to be something of a beer cocktail in the south and on the coast, it will froth and fizz and bubble so busily at New Haven, Iowa City and Lincoln, Neb., that no one will be conscious of the slightest discrepancy. I was right the first time. No one will be conscious.

Minnesota and Iowa will lock hangnails at Iowa City and the championship of the big ten very easily might ride with the outcome. At Lincoln, they are matching the arch-rivals, Nebraska and Missouri, and the 1928 champion of the Big Six is almost certain to emerge from this one. At New Haven, the Army and Yale will have it all on the off chance that one or the other may become the big tuna.

Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, New York University, Princeton, Cornell, Carnegie Tech, Georgetown, Lafayette and Bucknell still are clamoring for the right to be hailed the big one of the east but many seem to think that the distinction ultimately will fall to either Yale or the Army.

This particular field, as a matter of fact, should be considerably deflated tomorrow, as another eastern elimination will be on in the Princeton-Cornell game, while N. Y. U., Carnegie Tech and Pennsylvania are taking on a lot of competitive dynamite.

Penn-Navy

Pennsylvania naturally thought it was scheduling a live one in the Navy and, at that, it would do well to have a care lest it guess wrong twice on this thing.

The Navy might lose all self-control and score another touchdown. Anyhow, even a sub-normal Navy team is defeated only after you post the final score.

N. Y. U. also unbeaten, gets its first 1928 test from Colgate and, of course, Pittsburgh will fight Carnegie Tech and vice versa until something drops and this might be both of them.

Other undefeated easterners who will know they have been playing football will be Dartmouth against Harvard and Lafayette against West Virginia. The Penn State-Syracuse affair once was very hot but has been allowed to congeal.

Fordham naturally draws no blank in W. and J., but Georgetown either will beat Duke by several touchdowns or it isn't the team it purports to be.

Western Conference

Barring the focal points at New Haven and Lincoln, much of the action revolves around the western conference, in which everybody will go for an airing for the first time this year. The big moment will be furnished by the power houses, Minnesota and Iowa, with much depending upon the former's physical condition.

Neither team has blown one yet

Last Minute Rally By Alliance High Beats Sebring 14-12

In one of the most sensational football games in the history of both schools, Alliance High defeated Sebring High, 14-12 at Sebring Thursday afternoon.

The game opened with each team scoring a touchdown in the first period, and the score until the final quarter stood 7-6, favor of Alliance, as the Sebring kicker failed in the try for point. In the last period, five minutes to play, a long pass scored a second score for Sebring, and the score stood 12-7, the kicker again failing to make the point.

With one minute to play after the kickoff, on the kickoff Alliance heaved a long forward pass which placed the ball on Sebring's 10 yard line. Another pass scored the winning points as the game ended.

As a result of pre-game enthusiasm, six Alliance youths rested in Sebring jail all Thursday night, while two Sebring young men were given free board in Alliance jail. Their arrest followed disturbances in the two cities, on the invasion of Sebring by Alliance groups, and the Pottery's retaliation by visiting Alliance the same night.

Army Team Leaves For Yale Battle

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 26.—The Army football squad of 38 players will leave here this morning for Bridgeport, Conn., where they will establish headquarters for their trip to New Haven and the Yale game. The cadets will work out in the Yale bowl this afternoon.

Participation of Sprague and O'Keefe in the classic is doubtful. Two other injured regulars, Perry and Messenger, took brief workouts yesterday.

Ohio Invasion Of Indiana Under Way

Columbus, Oct. 26.—Keyed to a fighting pitch following a week of strenuous workouts and scrimmages, 29 members of the Ohio State university football squad together with coaches and the training corps, left Columbus at 7 o'clock this morning for Bloomington, Ind., where they will meet Indiana, their third big ten conference foe for the season, Saturday.

The Buckeye team, aboard a special Pennsylvania train, was expected to arrive in Bloomington at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. Coach Jack Wilce plans to send his portages through a light workout on the Hoosier gridiron this afternoon and later send them to Bedford, Ind., located about 20 miles from Bloomington, where they will spend the night.

Players composing the Buck squad leaving today include: Surina, Raskowski, Barratt, Ujhelyi, Young, Larkins, Fesler, McClure, Coffey, Holman, Kruskamp, Eby, Horn, Albers, Idle, J. Nesser, Selby, Griffiths, Glasser, McConnell, Dill, Fouch, Cery, Huston, Hieronymus, Carter, Reboulet, Cox and Hess.

Mount Union And Oberlin To Tangle

Alliance, Oct. 26.—Mt. Union pigskin toters will play host to their old rivals from Oberlin here tomorrow, and the fans will see some fur fly, though it's hard to decide which way the wind will blow.

Mount is still undefeated by a conference foe, while Oberlin was

Ohio High Schools Vote To Drop From National Tournaments

Columbus, O., Oct. 26.—Ohio high schools will not enter or participate in the national basketball tournament, conducted annually by the University of Chicago, it was reported here today, following a vote on the question by all members of the Ohio High School Athletic association, supervised by H. R. Townsend, commissioner.

The chief arguments against sending teams to the national tournament are that Ohio has stricter eligibility rules than most states, placing Ohio teams at a decided disadvantage; and the disturbance of scholastic work caused by absence for a week or more, it was said.

An amendment has been added to the constitution following this decision, which provides that the interscholastic basketball season shall close with the state finals. Violation of the rule by players shall inflict a penalty of a year's ineligibility, the amendment adds.

The rule takes effect January 15, 1929, allowing no participation in the national tournament in the 1929 season.

Champs To Travel On Pre-Season Trip

New York, Oct. 26.—Before leaving here today for St. Petersburg, Fla., Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, said that the world's champions would play several exhibition games in the southwest next spring. Texas and certain hitherto unexplored sections of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri are to be visited after the Yanks complete their training in Florida.

Results In Mid-Western Games In Doubt When Strong Members Battle

Chicago, Oct. 26.—The I's have it in this case the I's are Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, football events which stand out, even if ever so slightly, in tomorrow's all important Big Ten conference football clashes.

Iowa's looming on the horizon over Minnesota, a team on which the Hawkeyes have been unable to so much as score in the past three years, may be said to be hardly perceptible and the battle of beef at Iowa City appears doomed to the fate of the lucky breaks making the deciding angle.

Illinois, last year's Big Ten champions and undefeated this season, takes on Northwestern at Champaign-Urbana, and Coach Bob Zuppke's men should continue their triumphal march. Coach Dick Hanley has sent his charges at Evansville through a week's secret practice and will attempt to spring a bag of new plays against the Illinois, Indiana, meeting Ohio at Bloomington, although defeated last week.

Results In Mid-Western Games In Doubt When Strong Members Battle

Chicago, Oct. 26.—The I's have it in this case the I's are Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, football events which stand out, even if ever so slightly, in tomorrow's all important Big Ten conference football clashes.

Iowa's looming on the horizon over Minnesota, a team on which the Hawkeyes have been unable to so much as score in the past three years, may be said to be hardly perceptible and the battle of beef at Iowa City appears doomed to the fate of the lucky breaks making the deciding angle.

Illinois, last year's Big Ten champions and undefeated this season, takes on Northwestern at Champaign-Urbana, and Coach Bob Zuppke's men should continue their triumphal march. Coach Dick Hanley has sent his charges at Evansville through a week's secret practice and will attempt to spring a bag of new plays against the Illinois, Indiana, meeting Ohio at Bloomington, although defeated last week.

MOVIES

"BEAU BROADWAY"
The gong!
The huge arena hushes with a scuffling of feet in the semi-darkness. Here and there the glow of a cigarette stabs the murk. Telegraph instruments click impatiently. All eyes focus upon the white glare that picks out the squared ring—a flash of two huge bulks. Gleaning muscles.
"Knock him out—get him!" comes the throaty shout of ten thousand fans, frenzied with the fever of conflict.
In this new Lew Cody-Alleen Pringle production at the State to-night, the most spectacular boxing bout ever presented on the screen has been filmed by Malcolm St. Clair, the Tex Rickard of motion pictures.

GAINS STRENGTH AND WEIGHT

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mr. Vernon, Ill.—"I was nervous, all run-down and didn't have any 'pep.' I always did my work but I had a worn-out feeling. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised everywhere and I tried it. I feel better than I have for two or three years and have gained 25 pounds. I am trying to get my sister-in-law and my mother to take it. I will answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Oct. 26.—Little fur sports gilets or vests promise to fix chic women up for frosty winter days this year. These comfy little vests are not only very decorative but extremely useful as well.

They come in all of the flat furs that do not give a bulky look and are chosen to harmonize with the costume. Smart ones in mink beaver, caracul and other brown furs will do wonders with a tweed costume. Women golfers will find them particularly useful and for traveling they will certainly be more popular than the fur-lined coat, for one can never remove the fur lining but it is a simple matter to slip off one's vest.

Donguy is showing a very smart waistcoat in molekin in graded stripes of beige to match the trimming on the coat worn with it. The woven stripes which trim the hem of the skirt are seen again in a border on the blouse of silk shirting.

Ermine makes some pretty fur gilets for afternoon wear and brietshwanz looks very well with any tailleur. Max is using pure white brietshwanz for some lovely models which will be very chic at the winter resorts.

This fur, by the way, remains the most popular of all furs for the winter coat. It is seen in black, white, beige, pearl-gray and a darker shade called platinum. Black is probably the most popular, trimmed with fox. It is so supple any coat can be made on the same lines as one of cloth.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

Best Value of a Comfortable Bed

Considering the large portion of our time spent in bed, we should realize the necessity of having it comfortable. Not only comfortable to sleep in, but properly placed in the room so that it gets a perfect circulation of air without a direct draft.

Springs and mattress must fit perfectly so that there is no squeaking or rubbing against head or foot boards. The mattress should be well boxed and not too deeply tufted. In making the bed the mattress should be covered with an old blanket or a cotton flannel pad.

We have already spoken in previous articles of the part that long blankets and sheets play in the comfortable dressing of the bed. But we will remind the housewife once more to remember sizes. Also that an all wool blanket does not need to be judged so much by its weight as by the perfection of its weave.

Every one uses some kind of an outer spread, or throw, but it is neater and nicer to have a very light weight dimity spread underneath. These spreads wash almost as easily as a sheet and dry quickly, so that a large stock is not a necessity. The outer spreads should be removed and shaken then folded up at night. Pillow cases should fit easily, be long enough to conceal the end of the pillow and have a good deep hem.

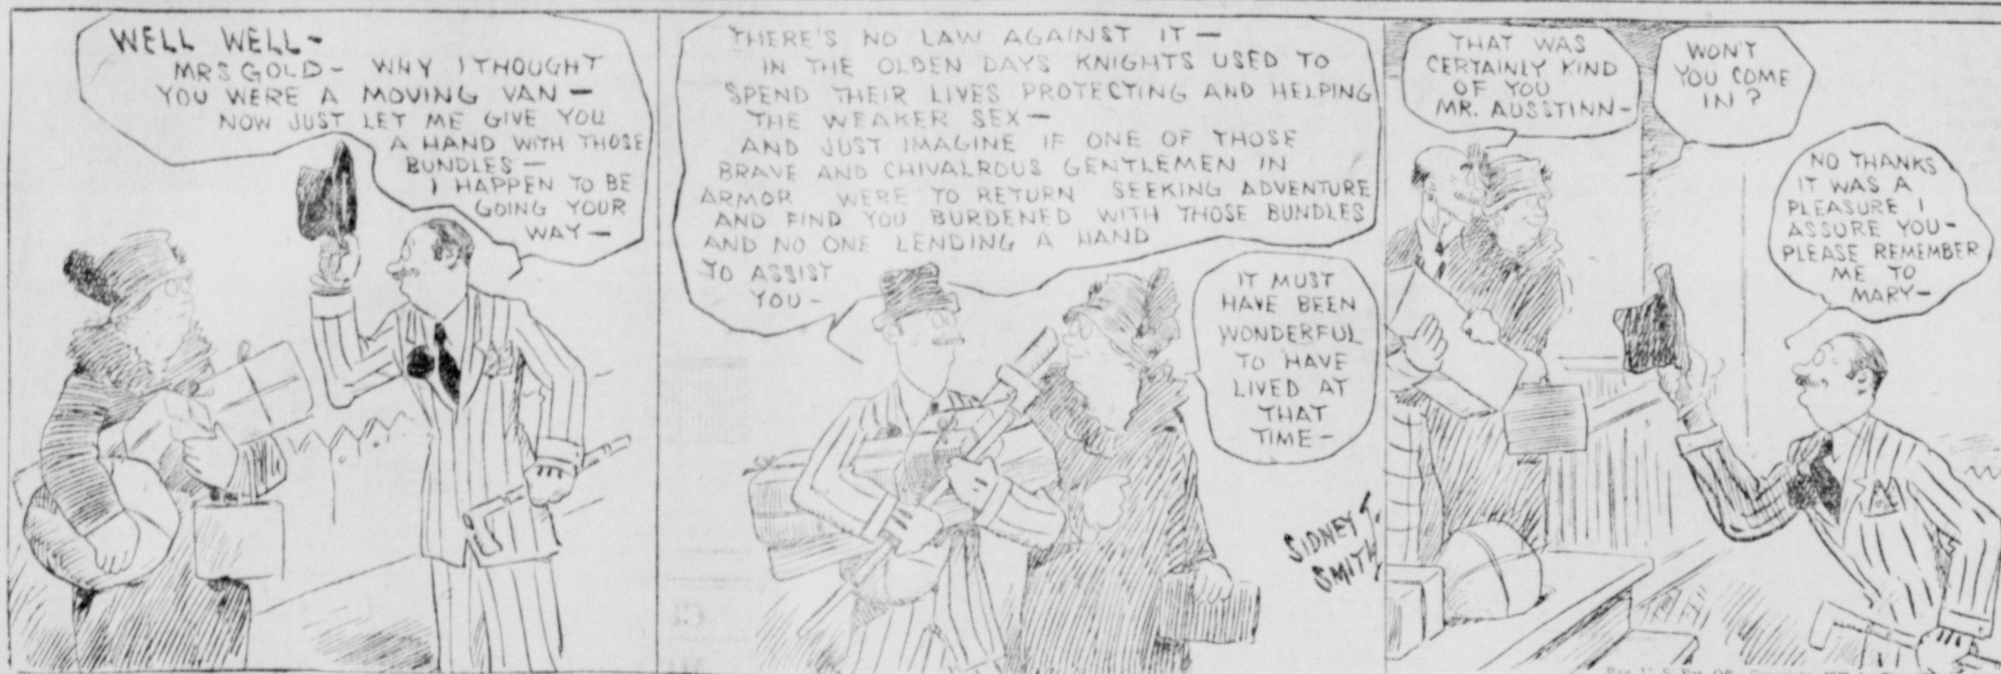

To make over pillows, rip an opening in the seam of the old pillows, after shaking the feathers to one end as much as possible. Rip not more than six inches in the middle. Do the same to the new, or rather leave the space unstitched. Then carefully baste the old and the new seams together. Carefully manipulate them so that the old is emptied into the new gradually. When the old case seems about empty, gently rip a little of the basting, slip in your hand and get all the feathers that are left. Now rip the old off and seam the new.

The Women's Hoover-for-President club held a meeting on Wednesday evening in the mayor's office with Mrs. Tillie McNulty as chairman. AROUND TOWN

It is surely fine the way the business men are supporting our

High School athletic teams, by having score cards, megaphones, etc., printed for the High School games. We know the school appreciates this type of support as well as the buying of blocks of tickets by individuals for the concert that was given last Saturday to raise funds for uniforming the High School band. Salem folks have the proper spirit.

SUMMER IS OVER

But you still can buy fresh Fruits and Vegetables at very low prices if you shop at our store.

IT KEEPS US BUSY

To supply these Salem folks with our delicious, all-pork, home made sausage. Many, many people walk blocks out of their way to buy our sausage. They find that it is not only a breakfast dish, but it is delicious with macaroni, tomatoes or spinach for dinner or luncheon.

THE WORLD HAS A NEW AND FINER MOTOR CAR

"400" Special Six Sedan $1345
 f. o. b. factory
 (as illustrated)

"Welcome!" That's what America has said to the Twin-Ignition Motor

FROM the very day of the introduction of the new Nash "400", keen public interest has surrounded the new Twin-Ignition motor—

People everywhere are telling other people that they've never driven a car with so much sparkle and enthusiasm in its action—

—Or one that is as smooth and quiet at every speed, clear up to the top—

—Or one that needs so little gasoline.

Twin ignition, with high compression in the valve-in-head motor means more power, more snap, more speed, using ordinary gasoline, and less of it.

Before you buy your new car, come in. We'll give you the key to a Twin-Ignition-Motored "400". You take it out, and take a ride. That's all we ask!

*In the first three months following the "400" introduction "400" sales were nearly 75,000 cars, 14,000 more than the total of the best previous July, the best previous August and the best previous September in all Nash history.

9 Sedans from $885 to $1990, 8 Coupes, Cabriolets, Victorias from $885 to $1775, f. o. b. factory

LONDON TO HEAR SHAW LECTURES ON CIVILIZATION

London, Oct. 26. — Although he avowedly declared that his latest book was his "Last Will and Testament to Humanity," George Bernard Shaw has consented to try and enlighten the world on something besides Socialism.

He has promised to give a series of lectures in London this winter on "The Future of Western Civilization."

Whether by that time "equality of income" will have been solved by the "Intelligent Woman," Mr. Shaw, is unable to say, for he doubts if there even will be a future.

In Noah's Time
"My difficulty," he says in discussing the nature of his subject, "will lie in the fact that, as western civilization has neither a present nor a past, there is no reason to believe that it will have a future."

"There was no western civilization about Noah or Abraham; yet in any countryside in Western Europe today these patriarchs would stand out as very advanced spirits."

"In Dayton, Job would be imprisoned for carrying modern thought to dangerous and blasphemous excesses.

"Our urban masses would let Job alone, because they could not be induced to take any interest in him; they would neither know nor care whether his ideas were modern or not."

Civilization Today
Speaking of civilization as it is today, Mr. Shaw said:
"To find a civilized country we must turn to the bees and the ants; and even there we have no reason to assume that every bee and every ant understands the whole business of the hive and the ant-hill, instead of merely doing what some designing bee or ant orders."

MILLIONS LIE IN CULM BANKS OF PA. COAL MINES

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 26.—Uncounted millions of dollars—wealth beyond all dreams of avarice—lie buried in the culm and silt banks in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania.

Piled high around the mines in the hard coal regions are huge banks of mixed coal and rock, called culm. Millions on millions of tons of this mixture are to be found throughout the region, forming a coal reserve which the state department of internal affairs estimates at 65,000,000 tons.

Assuming that figure to be correct, and if no more than $3 per ton could be realized from such reclaimed anthracite, $200,000,000 would be a conservative figure for the value of these deposits.

"The streams flowing through the anthracite region are black with coal dust and the banks and bars are made up of sand and fine coal," says a report by the state geological survey.

"In the aggregate there may be 900,000,000 tons of this material containing enough coal to make future recovery profitable. This material would cover a square mile to a depth of 900 feet. If only 1 per cent of it is recoverable coal, here is a reserve of 9,000,000 tons, or a winter's coal supply for a million families."

"The culm which is piled in such endless profusion has a surprising quantity of good coal in it."

Around the mines are towering piles of culm, while below the modern wet breakers are banks of silt consisting of fine size coal and rock settled out of the breaker water.

Valley bottoms are filled with this stuff and many feet deep and the silt is to be found in huge piles everywhere.

It is estimated that the culm and silt banks in the anthracite regions contain 214,250,000 tons of mixed rock and coal. Some of it contains as high as 80 per cent of coal; some as low as 20 per cent, the survey shows.

Dad's Day at School

Wooster, Oct. 26.—Saturday is "Dad's Day" at the college of Wooster, but grandfathers and grandmothers, uncles and aunts, brothers and sisters, all will be welcomed alike on the day that does honor to "Dad." "Dad's Day" was observed at Wooster for the first time last year, but the occasion was such a success that college authorities voted to repeat it this year.

Makes Any Man A Real Sheik

You can't attract the girls with a beard that makes you look like a coal-heaver and that feels like sandpaper. Here's a good tip. There's a new and different shaving cream tapping soap in it, yet it makes a thick, wonderfully cool lather. Softens any beard instantly so even a dull blade slides thru like a breeze.

Cuts shaving time in half, saves blades. Finally, it leaves your face soft and smooth for hours, because it's made like your sweetie's beauty cream. Ask for KEEN Shaving Cream today. Money back if not de-
